TWICE-TOLD
TESTIMONY

Norway People Are Doing All They Can
For Fellow Sufferers

Norway testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Norway who suffer from back and kidney ills. Last year sufferer doubt this evidence of merit, we produce confirmed proof—statements from Norway people who again endorse Doan's Kidney Pills—confirm their former testimony. Here's a Norway case:

S. C. Foster, barber, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and I am only too glad to say to others I think they are the best of kidney medicines. Several years ago I had kidney trouble. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at F. P. Stone's Drug Store and I was soon feeling all right again. I remained so for a long time, but later caught cold and my kidneys gave me trouble. I again took Doan's and they gave me relief."

EIGHT YEARS LATER, Mr. Foster added: "I still think as well of Doan's Kidney Pills today as when I first endorsed them. I used them occasionally, as I feel in need of them and I am always promptly benefited."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Foster had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

PARIS HILL

Is Now One Hundred And One
Mrs. Diantha Fuller, widow of an 1812 veteran, and aged 101 years is now living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Doe at Paris Hill, where for the past four years she has been cared for.

Mrs. Fuller is the widow of Harvey Fuller, a veteran of the war of 1812.
Her first husband's name was Foss.
Harvey Fuller was her second husband and she was his fourth wife, he being an old man at the time of their marriage. She is the daughter of the late Ezekiel and Pamela (Allen) Demon and was born at Buckfield, where the greater part of her life was spent.
She was one of five children.

She is a member of the Methodist church and when able to get out was a regular attendant at the North Paris church. Of her several children, two are living. Mosley Foss of West Paris, and Mrs. Nancy Littlehale of Everett, Mass.
Mrs. Fuller, her second husband, was a private in Captain U. Ripley's company, Massachusetts Militia in the war of 1812. A pension granted in 1879 was increased in 1886. Mrs. Fuller wears glasses only she reads. She wore a black dress with a white silk necker-chief, with brooch, gold beads and gold hoops in her ears, and a shell comb in her hair which, though silver white appears abundant. Though her memory is not very good, she freely talked of what she could remember. She recently said to Mrs. Doe: "We ought to be glad that we have matches. I can remember when my father had to go to Deacon Farrar's at Buckfield to get coals to start the fire for breakfast, which would be caten about noon time."

program consisting of readings and music that was enjoyed by all. This was followed by an order of ten dances. Dancers from Harrison, Lovell and other towns took part in the Boston Fane, "Chocolate Dance" and Clara Grover was the lucky lady to get the Lovney's.

Music for dancing was furnished by the 3-piece orchestra that has been playing at East Stoneham all summer. Over $30.00 of ice cream was sold in less than two hours. It is hoped more ice cream will be made for their next "spasm" and jamboree.

$100.00 REWARD

It has been said by those who either have no Maine Gems to sell, or else because of ignorance that there is no such thing as a Maine Gem. My show case is filled with semi-precious stones, mined and cut in Maine, and sold throughout the U. S. in the best stores, including Tiffany & Co. of New York. The above sum will be paid to any person who can prove there are no Maine Gems. I would be perfectly safe in making it a million dollars reward, did I possess that amount of money.

FRANK W. BALL, Secretary of State.

To vote a straight party ticket, place a cross (X) in the square above the party group of candidates for whom you desire to vote; or omit the cross (X) in the large square above the party group and place a cross (X) in each one of the small squares at the right of the names of the respective candidates in the party column.

Republican Headquarters Officially Opened

Open house prevailed at Norway Republican Club Headquarters Friday evening. Everybody irrespective of party affiliations received a hearty welcome and were given an opportunity to inspect the new quarters, listen to an eloquent address and dance. Attendance was more than two hundred. Stephen O. Jellerson, president of the Club, presided and introduced Hon. George S. McCarthy of Lewiston who spoke at some length on the vital political questions and their bearings on future events. An interpretation of numerous articles in the Boston Herald was made a strong point by logic and eloquence. Dancing followed until a late hour, music by Mrs. Wilbur Downing, piano, Louise Thomas drums. The affair was entirely informal and everybody went in for a good social time.

The membership committees were busy during the evening and the women particularly were active in securing members for the organization and fifty-eight cards were signed.

President S. O. Jellerson announced the rooms would in the future be a business and social center where the various committees could meet in session and everybody gather at least once a week for free dancing. A movement is on foot to make the club permanent, install bowling alleys, pool tables and other games. A reading room supplied with current magazines and papers would be featured.

Veranda Club Notes

The Veranda Club met with Mrs. Maggie Libby, lower Main street, Wednesday evening, August 25, for their regular meeting and a picnic supper which was served out of doors, as the evening was all anyone could wish, with a nice moon, needless to say, it was a most pleasant occasion. Baked beans and coffee and pastry were served.

After the business meeting was held, at a late hour all departed to their homes wishing to spend many more just such pleasant evenings.

Next meeting will be with Mrs. Nellie Merrill, Pleasant street, Wednesday evening, September 8.

Ball Games Labor Day

Stanley Wheeler of South Paris who is directing the baseball tournament Labor Day for the Celebration Committee, has drawn the positions for the four clubs, with the consent of their managers.

Norway A. A. and Bryants Pond play Monday forenoon at 10 o'clock. West Paris and Oxford meet at 1:30 P. M. Winners of both games play the final immediately after the last contest. Games will start promptly on the time set.

Both the main gate and Fair street entrance will be opened at an early hour to avoid congestion.

Market Transfer

Ernest B. Jackson has sold his business to Leroy Titus of South Paris formerly of Bryants-Pond who will occupy the market about September 20. Mr. Jackson opened this market and provision market nine years ago and has carried on a successful business. He has no definite plans for the future, but will at least enjoy a long vacation before beginning other work. Only two days from business in nine years is an unusual record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Russell and son and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards motored to Bath Saturday where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ripley and family. Stops were made in Leviston and other places.

A cement floor is being laid in the basement under the high school gymnasium where the Agricultural department will be located. Timothy L. Heath Desautels is in charge with Albert Desautels laying the cement.

Paris street closed to traffic from the Congregational church to Winter street. Detours to South Paris are down Main to Fair street or up Marston street and down Beal Street.

Maurice Russell, a pharmacist in Cambridge, Mass., has been the guest of G. H. Bennett and Fred M. Davis and family. He spent several days at his former home in Bridgton and Harrison.

Norway was left without a town government Friday when the three selectmen and wives, with other guests motored to Augusta and Togus for the day. The party inspected the state capital building and were taken through the Soldiers' Home. A picnic dinner was served en route and supper eaten at Lake Auburn. The party included Mr. and Mrs. George P. Hathaway, Mr. and Mrs. H. Arthur Robbins and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Homer R. Luck, Elgin Greenleaf and family, and Dorothy Noble. A little amusement was caused at the start when the selectmen appointed Leroy Spiller to represent them during their absence. It is said this temporary town officer was down flat with nervous prostration long before the party returned and relieved him of the exacting duties.

Mr. and Mrs. McBride and daughter who have been staying at the Shepherd Cottage at the lake returned this week to their home in Philadelphia, Penn. Capt. Mel Simpson, an authority on happenings about Lake Umbagog, the past thirty years says, "This summer beats them all. Never have so many visitors been here for fishing and recreation. Many new faces appeared in the summer colony along with the regulars but will return next season. Once here, always here."

EAST OTISFIELD

Llewellyn Spurr
The death of Llewellyn Spurr occurred very suddenly at his home in East Otisfield on the evening of August 5.

He had been in his usual health and worked during the day as he had been accustomed to do and retired at night, showing no signs of illness.

Shortly before midnight he was seized with an attack of heart failure and passed away in a very few moments.

He was born in Otisfield, Oct. 15, 1844, the son of Samuel and Laura H. Spurr, and has always been a resident of this town, living since the Civil War on the farm which his grandfather, Wm. Spurr, took up and cleared soon after the town was first settled.

He was a good neighbor, honest and upright in his dealings, and a generous, to those who were unfortunate in their time of need.

He has been entrusted with town business at various times and has always faithfully performed the duties connected therewith, to the best of his ability. He enlisted in the 17th Maine Volunteer Infantry in 1862 and served with it until the Battle of Gettysburg, where he was wounded and on account of which he was discharged from the service.

He was a member of the G. A. R. Post at Oxford. The Post attended his funeral in a body, also the Women's Relief Corps Auxiliary to the Post were present.

He leaves besides his widow, Lydia S., one son, William S. Spurr, also three brothers, Joseph M. Spurr of Lowell, Mass., Cyril P. Spurr of South Bridgton and Edwin Lamb of East Otisfield. They were all present at the funeral as were also other relatives from Lowell, Billerica and Norwood, Mass., also from Windham and Bridgton.

The esteem in which he was held by his relatives and friends was shown by the very large attendance at the funeral, also by the many beautiful floral gifts, which were a tribute of respect from his many friends.

The funeral services were held at his late home Sunday afternoon, Aug. 8th, at which the Rev. W. Knobel and Wm. spoke very tenderly of him. Solos were rendered very feelingly by Mrs. Barrows and Mrs. Scribner, one of which, "The End of a Perfect Day," was very touching.

The bearers chosen from among his friends and neighbors were Nathaniel Lamb, George Knight, Horatio Peaco and Louis Bean. Roscoe Staples of Welchville had charge of the burial services. He was laid to rest in the family lot in the Elmwood Cemetery.

Woman Suffered In Silence

Health Poor, Beauty Fast Fading Away—
Made Believe She Was Well

A woman of New Auburn (Me.) writes: "There must be lots of women who feel as I did. I suffered in silence many times on account of my pride, but now I know that a good laxative is essential to good health. I neglected my health trying to keep cheery and pretending I was all right when I wasn't. I had terrible pains, was 'grouchy' and my head aches almost killed me with pain, and worst of all from my viewpoint I had a sallow, unbecoming complexion which was not helped by face powders. Why didn't I try to cure myself rather than pretend? After taking Dr. True's Elixir, I now know that a laxative was what I needed. Dr. True's Elixir is mild and pleasant to take, and works just right for me. My complexion cleared up—bright and ruddy—blemishes vanished and everyone remarked how much better I looked."—Mrs. E. J. B., New Auburn, Me.

The root of many of the evils of sickness is the bowels, a very vital part of the human body.

A cold, a fever, diseases or the like can be helped at once, providing the operation of the bowels is normal—the first and most important relief can be had by giving a Laxative, be sure it is the proper kind.

Most everybody in these days of quick action and swift forget their health. The laboring people both down their minds, often go to bed right after eating, and wake up in the morning restless; force down a breakfast and then are distressed all day.

An Outdoor Worker says: "I couldn't puzzle out what made me feel so bad. My good, home-cooked meals didn't even taste good, and I had headaches and was grouchy. I never thought it was constipation, but now I know, for I took four doses of your Dr. True's Elixir, and it fixed me up grand. I will never be without it again in case of constipation."

—F. B. B., Allston, Mass.

The bowels need attention first and always. Rich foods, improper cooking, irregular and quick eating, lack of exercise can all be offset providing a mild laxative is taken regularly.

A Business Man writes: "The continual rush of office details and the short meal hours I get, together with, I think, restaurant foods, has simply knocked my system all to pieces. I felt lory, and had no appetite until I took Dr. True's Elixir, as a Laxative. It is a great thing. No one should neglect their bowels."

Dr. True's Elixir, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, with an established reputation since 1851 (over 68 years) has accomplished the seemingly impossible. It has relieved thousands of sufferers from constipation, which causes so many terrible disorders.

Dr. True's Elixir will benefit everyone: The laborer who eats heartily and quickly; the office boy and girl who eat "fancy" and irregularly; elderly people who can't digest well and children who suffer from intestinal parasites.

Symptoms of worms: Deranged stomach, swollen upper lip, offensive breath, hard and full belly, with occasional pains about the navel, pale face, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose and rectum, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, red points on the tongue, starting during sleep.

Dr. True's Elixir means a big saving to health and pocketbook. "At all dealers." Three sizes. Buy the large size.

Sure relief

The sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia, and biliousness, needs no warning to avoid the many worthless, so-called "cures" that are offered, often containing harmful drugs. In vain, these various preparations have been tried, frequently leaving the system weaker than before.

The true "L.F." Atwood's Medicine brings quick relief without the risk of injurious after-effects. Instead of a temporary improvement, at the expense of weakening some vital organ, it helps the entire digestive apparatus, tones the stomach, and establishes a general healthy condition. Taken regularly, the physical improvement which will result, will also overcome the fear of a new attack.

"L.F." can be given with perfect safety to every member of the family. It has been a family health-restorer for 60 years; its friends are steadfast. You can buy a large bottle (60 teaspoonful doses) from your druggist for 50 cents. "L.F." Medicine Co., Portland, Maine.

PLEASANT DAYS BY THE SEA

Great Diamond Island, Aug. 28, 1920

Editor of the Advertiser: We came again to our cottage on Wednesday, after having been in Norway for a week. The wind has blown from the land since the Hackettstown, New Jersey, the coming school year, at a substantial increase in salary.

The sun rises, throws out its warm beams and we fear a hot day, but along about 10 a. m., in comes a sea breeze to temper the heat and we ex-prience a comfort in the shade of our splendid oak and white birch trees that pays for all the trouble we have had to obtain it. Next week I expect to have some deep sea fishing with my young friend, Vernon Kimball, who will have his vacation then.

My good neighbor, Mr. Safford, said I had better not go unless I shall go to it. Of course I am not, but I shall go for the experience and expect more or less sea-sickness. I am as brave as a lion under my own fine shade trees. I have an idea that a little sea-sickness will prevent me from going out I shall venture, "whether or no."

I recall a sea fishing trip of many years ago, what I remember particularly is that I had a big dose of sea-sickness, caught no fish, and of "Bruiser" Hosmer saying when we ate our lunch, "Well don't that Judge Whitman have a mouth full of sea sickness?" (I had eaten). I must have been before we went out the briny deep. I don't think I had a "mouth" for much of anything for some time after I got ashore. Won't "fill up" next time I go deep sea fishing. That much I've learned since my first experience.

Bob and Jay came for the week and before we went to Norway. They helped us immensely. It was like a reinforcement on a field of battle. We went over to the Fort and out to the Cliff, Sunday. Jay discovered the old "Spanish Kitchen" which appears as if it had been heven out of the side of the cliff. I want to get round there by boat some day and inspect it. There is a tradition about the place that I can make use of. Off to the northeast lay a bank of fog, a mist enveloped Eagle Island. We heard the whistle of a steamer and suddenly out from the fog came one of those big boats, loaded with passengers. It was a very pretty sight. Soon the shrill and musical notes of a piccolo came up to us followed by those of a harp and a violin. Three "strolling musicians" go up and down the Bay daily and furnish entertainment for the passengers on the boats. The piccolo player, Fred H. Cummings, is an Italian, but the other two are Americans I judge. They are reaping a rich harvest. The fiddler is no "great shakes" at "drawing the bow," but the other two are fine players.

Young and Mollie came with the summer school boys, Fred and I took the boys over to the Fort where they saw the big guns, and mounting the parapet on the northeast end of the Government Reservation, John and Sam had a splendid view of the open ocean, rendering a trip to the Cliff unnecessary as they obtained a better view from there. It was a real letter day in the life of these boys.

We expect Fred H. Cummings with a party of our close friends to visit us next Sunday. I shall have the clams ready and hope to induce him to make the stew. Fred has as good taste as a woman and can do anything. Hope the weather will be fine. If it is we will take care of the rest if there is anything left of me after the deep sea fishing.

Monday afternoon we shall go up to the city and hear the famous organ. A grand concert is to be given at two o'clock in City Hall.

Thursday evening the ladies furnished supper at Elwell Hall. We went and liked the arrangements. Printed cards gave the bill of fare and prices, and so one could select what he wanted and eat what would not distress the inner man.

At our time of life this is a great consideration. If this plan should be adopted at home we will attend the supper regularly. This supper netted over $50. I met at the Hall George W. Moody, an "old timer," on the Island. He is a business man of Portland and one of the best to secure a lot and build here. He has one of the most desirable cottages and lots fronting on the inner lake. I met him. George D. Bisbee once owned a lot between Mr. Moody's and the water. He never built on it and Mr. Moody had his lot to the Bay. I marked Mr. Moody among the things I had hitherto met, as he sat at one of the tables accompanied by four persons, and knew at once I should like him. Afterwards he came over to where we were and was introduced. I found him to be well informed and a most pleasing gentleman to meet.

I made a mistake in my impressions of him. We shall henceforth be very close friends. He asked me to come to his cottage and play checkers with him and to talk over things we both liked and take in the fine scenery of the Bay and mainland from the piazza. Oh for a few points on checkers from that old cross. The fact is I haven't played checkers for years and I've forgotten everything about the game he ever taught me. But I'm in for it and expect to be unmercifully walloped.

I noticed in the Advertiser an article on the cur for the high cost of living. There are a great many of readers who are appearing from time to time in the papers. The people themselves must take a hand in the affair and strike where it will be more or less effective. If all consumers would act together and go without certain luxuries for a season, the profiteers would be squeezed. It is idle to talk of reducing the high cost of living when everyone is trying to get more pay for his services and his goods. For one I'm not going to vote for the man who is now trying to have his salary increased or for one who will assist him by voice or vote to get it. Senator Harding's key note point is that the country should be brought back to normal conditions before the war. It cannot be done by boosting everything up.

In my leisure moments, while playing for amusement a solitaire I invented myself, I often whistle "Benlah Land," "Old Dog Tray," "Old Kentucky Home," "Maryland, My Maryland," etc. The first recalls our ten days' stay on Little Chebeague with Mr. J. A. Brown's family many years ago. Dell Brown's family many years ago. Dell Brown's family many years ago. Dell Brown's family many years ago.

we are here. That stay on Little Chebeague was the "lure of the sea" which finally brought us to this island. Whenever I whistle or sing "Maryland, My Maryland," I think of that splendid young man, Stuart M. Terrier of Baltimore, who gave his life for his country in the Great War. My heart sadness we can't bear at the thought of his death, and his life so full of promise. No family south or north of Mason and Dixon's Line ever made a greater sacrifice in the loss of any of its members than his. I shall never forget while life lasts, the manly bearing and noble character of this fine young man.

Amy Losier has so fully recovered from what came near a nervous breakdown, that she will resume her work as teacher of languages in Brighton High School, the same position she held last year. Miss Losier has been very successful in her work there, and she has received a very large increase in salary as an inducement to return this next year. She has been spending several days with her parents in Otisfield.

ESCAPED AN OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Many Such Cases.

Cairo, Ill.—"Some time ago I got so bad with female trouble that I thought I would have to be operated on. I had operated on. I had a bad displacement. My right side would pain me and I was so nervous I could not hold a glass of water. Many times I would have to stop my work and sit down or I would fall on the floor in a faint. I consulted several doctors and fighting to keep from having the operation. I had read so many times of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped my sister so I began taking it. I have never felt better than I have since then and I keep house and am able to do all my work. The Vegetable Compound is certainly one of the greatest medicines."—Mrs. J. R. Matthews, 3311 Syngamore Street, Cairo, Ill.

Of course there are many serious cases that only a surgical operation will relieve. I freely acknowledge this, but the above letter from one of the many others like it, simply prove that many operations are recommended when medicine in many cases is all that is needed.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

Citizens of Maine

Governor James M. Cox has shown that the Republican Party is collecting $15,000,000 from big business to buy the coming election.

The Republican Party spent three-quarters of a million dollars to debauch the electorate of Michigan and send Senator Newberry to the United States Senate.

That three-quarters of a million dollars gave the Republicans control of the Senate by one vote, enabled them to organize the Senate and defeat the peace treaty, blocking the effort to end all war.

Can they buy Maine and the country, as Newberry bought Michigan?

Rebuke the war profiteers, who are trying to buy the Nation to defeat permanent world peace.

EXPERTS STUDY REINDEER AS ALASKAN MEAT SOURCE

A first-hand study of Alaskan reindeer and land fur-bearing animals is now being made by Dr. E. W. Nelson, Chief of the Biological Survey, United States Department of Agriculture, and several specialists belonging to the staff of the bureau. Dr. Nelson will spend from two to three months in Alaska, while the other specialists will be in Alaska under permanent appointment, acquiring information which will be valuable in the administration of new duties assigned to the Department of Agriculture by recent acts of Congress, namely, the improvement of reindeer herds as a source of meat in the Territory, fox farming, and the protection of land fur-bearing animals.

One of the men accompanying Dr.
Nelson—Dr. Seymour Hadwen—was formerly connected with the health of animals branch of the Canadian department of agriculture. He and a new member of the staff, formerly connected with the Alaska Reindeer Service of the Department of the Interior, are devoting their attention to diseases among the reindeer. Two other members of the party, formerly grazing examiners with the Forest Service, are investigating the grazing areas of Alaska to determine the regions best suited to the reindeer.

Duty To Tell It Says Ex-soldier

Wonderfully Built Up By Tanlac
And Able To Go To Work
Again

"Yes sir, Tanlac has helped my mother and myself so much that I feel it my duty to tell the whole world about this medicine," said Frank Hamilton, of 20 Bradford St., Portland, Me., a few days ago. Recently Mr. Hamilton received his honorable discharge from the U. S. Army.

"I had been in bad health for over a year," continued Mr. Hamilton, "and since my discharge from the Army some time ago I had been in such a weak, run-down condition that I was unable to work. My appetite was so poor that I hardly ate enough to keep me going. Mother would have a big dinner prepared for me, but when I got to the table my appetite left me and the sight of food would nauseate me so that I would have to get up and leave. It seemed that everything turned against me and for the past three months I lost strength and energy rapidly. My sleep was restless and when I got up every morning I just felt so weak and worn out I could hardly drag myself about."

"My mother had been in a miserable run-down condition also, and she had taken Tanlac with such fine results that I started taking it and it began to build me up right away and to-day I am feeling better than I have in all my life and can hardly realize what a remarkable change has come over me. My appetite is as fine, if not better than it ever was and I am eating three and four big hearty meals every day and still feel hungry. Everything agreed with me perfectly and my strength and energy have come back to me. I sleep so sound at night that they have to call me a half dozen times and then shout right in my ear before I ever wake up. I feel so strong I am planning to go back to work immediately."

Tanlac is sold in Norway by A. L. Clark Drug Co., in West Paris by S. T. White, and by O. H. Haskell, Sweden, R. F. D. from Harrison.

CENTENNIAL OF THE DUDLEY FAMILY IN WOODSTOCK

There is always something of interest derived from the old landmarks of a town and from them we all try to solve in some measure the character and distinctive qualities of the "old settlers," the first representatives of a town's industry. Connected with any town are those simple monuments, the old roads and "bridle paths," the bounds of old walled in farms and here and there the sites left to designate the first habitations. These markings speak of the old pioneers, of the burdens they bore and of sacrifices. We contemplate their conditions and recognize perhaps too, that though poverty was among them, these men of the wilderness were content with their lot as it was. All have place in the minds of a present generation and as reminders of the past they are the bright spots that invite the attention of every lover of the "old and ancient."

Away up among the Oxford Hills is one of those historic places of the olden days, now the farm and pleasant home of Dana O. Dudley. Its original acres were contained in one of the first lots surveyed and is specified on the town of Woodstock's map as one of a tier in the "Thousand Acre Squadron." This is located on the old county thoroughfare, some two miles or more from Bryant's Pond village. The original acres of this farm have been widened by the addition, many years ago, of adjoining lots on which once were the homes of some of our first settlers. Today this place represents several hundred acres of tillage, pasture and forest land, and upon it is the spacious modern farm house with ample outer buildings. The present owner is of the fourth generation from David Dudley, the first occupant of the name and is one of our progressive, enterprising citizens of the town.

Through these acres runs the oldest highway, the oldest in town, cut through one hundred and twenty-four years ago as a connection between Rumford and Paris. For years it was the main thoroughfare of the town and over it were toiled the products of those early days in their transfer to and from Portland.

Not far from either point of this Dudley farm can be found today, marks where once the habitations of the Bryants, Robinsons, Felt, Beckler, Packard and others. These but show the change and are the reminders of those generations of the dim past, now at rest upon the hills and within the valleys of the old town.

To this spot up over the old highway came David Dudley and his family from Paris in 1820. David Dudley was a member of one of the oldest Massachusetts families. He had come as one of the early pioneers into the town of Hebron. Of his family branch it is traced back to Francis Dudley, (a relative of Gov. Thomas Dudley), who was born in England, came to this country and settled in Concord, Mass., around 1630. Francis Dudley married Sarah Wheeler. Of their children, Joseph married Abigail Goble. The son, Joseph, Jr., married Mary Chandler in 1718. Their son, Capt. Ebenezer Dudley, born about 1735, married Grace — at Sudbury. He was the father of David Dudley, born in Sudbury, Oct. 1, 1763. David Dudley was one of the representatives of the earlier years and identified with the growth of the town in its struggle for improved conditions. He died in 1847 and his successors upon the original lot have been the sons, Col. Edwin Dudley, the grandson, Otis S. Dudley and the great grandson, Dana O. Dudley. They have been men of integrity and prominent in the town's affairs. Of the two elder, they are well remembered today by the middle aged and oldest citizens.

Col. J. Dudley was one of the active men in old militia days and was an officer in the Woodstock Infantry of eighty years ago. He was called often by the town to take charge in the building of new roads and bridges and was one of the stalwart rugged men of the older days.

On the 26th inst., in the glory and sunshine of a perfect August day was held on this farm, now a hallowed spot, the centennial of the Dudley family. It was a gathering which had in its representation families from the several towns of Paris, Buckfield, Turner and Norway. It was a day of social enjoyment, singing and the making of new acquaintances. A splendid dinner was served in the dining hall over the family table.

Among others seated around the table were the five living children of the late Col. Dudley and Paulina Felt Dudley. Those living are Ansel Dudley, who has been a prominent business man in town for nearly half a century, Mrs. Evelyn Young of Norway, Mrs. Amanda Sheran, Mrs. Angeline Bowker and Mrs. Adella Curtis of Bryant's Pond. Their united ages today make up the sum of 386 years. Other connections of the family name present were Nellie Dudley, Carrie Dudley, Allen, C. K. Dudley, Albert Dudley, Cora Allen Dudley, Bert G. Dudley, Perin S. Dudley, Cass E. R. Dudley, Charles S. Dudley, Grace Dudley, Milton, Wheeler Dudley, Frank S. Dudley, Edwin A. Dudley, Stella Bowker Bacon, H. A. Bacon, Freeland Young, Arthur O. A table cloth wove by Aunt Lydia Nutting in 1856. One feature was a drawing of the original home of Col. Dudley made by his daughter, Angeline Dudley Bowker in her eighty-fifth year. Around the place too are preserved some articles that are a reminder of old militia days. These once belonged to Col. Dudley and Lieut. John Day; both officers in the old State Militia.

In the afternoon the company was called together and program for entertainment was announced. An address of welcome was given by Dana O. Dudley. This was responded to by Carl O. Dudley. An interesting paper was read by Stella M. Bacon, giving reminiscences of her childhood days of her mother, Mrs. Angeline Dudley Bowker upon the old farm. Mrs. Bowker is now in her 87th year. "A greeting of the centennial day" was read by Martha Dudley. An interesting genealogy of the Dudley family prepared by Mr. Stella M. Bowker Bacon was read by her at the closing of the day's program.

All present seemed anxious to make this gathering a step toward an annual reunion and an organization was completed for that purpose with the following officers: pres., Arthur O. Dudley of Tur-
